

Technology

Support Description

Technology includes websites, iPADS, wordles, digital books, Power Point, photo story, Skype, etc. It can be used in a variety of ways, but it must relate to classroom content in a meaningful way. These supports often provide native language resources to support language learning.